Most people go to Fiji expecting stunning beaches, beautiful islands and perfectly still, turquoise waters. It wouldn't be an understatement to say that this 7 day adventure obliterates those expectations and delivers something much more amazing. Every day delivers a big dollop of heaven as you explore some of the South Pacific's real wonders.

Every night is spent in a beautiful island resort, and you'll spend your days snorkelling, diving, cruising, exploring or simply just lazing. The Yasawas are yours to fall in love with, and this trip shows you just how beautiful they really are. Some of the big highlights include a trip out to the Blue Lagoon on day 1, scene of the notorious Brooke Shields movie. Day 2 gives you a chance to explore the awesome underwater caverns at the Sawailau Caves, before you jump onboard the Wanna Taki the next day for an overnight cruise. On days 4 and 5 you'll check out the southern Yasawas, where you can choose between a range of free activities including a reef snorkelling trip or guided kayaking. The last day is possibly the most memorable as you climb aboard the 'Seaspray' for a sailing adventure around the outer Mamanuca Islands. You'll visit a traditional Fijian village and experience a Kava ceremony, as well as checking out the island featured in the Tom Hanks movie 'Castaway'.
